

22301VIC Certificate I in Transition Education - Garden to Plate

“THE RECIPE”

Equal measures of nurturing and learning

Cups of literacy

Spoonfuls of numeracy

Litres of language

Kilos of technology

‘Heaped’ potential for each individual

‘Garden to Plate’ supports learners developing everyday living skills through fun hands-on activities. The program incorporates necessary language, literacy, numeracy and technology components in a creative way to maximise each student’s potential. SGAE provides a supportive and inspirational learning environment enhancing each person’s life skill development.

Pre-training Review

Conducted for all prospective candidates to determine if:

- The candidate has the appropriate foundation skills requirements to enter this qualification, and
- The candidate holds vocational competency and currency in the proposed area which they intend to train and assess.

The review provides essential information about the learner, their industry and current workplace roles. This information allows SGAE to individualise training for the learner and contextualise for the industry ensuring appropriate delivery for success supported by diverse learner resources to give relevance to the unit/s within this qualification.

This training is delivered with Victorian and Commonwealth Government funding to eligible individuals.
